Ramsay MacDonald

British Labor

Statesman Passes

Citizens throughout the British Empire were shocked Tuesday to hear of the death of Ramsay MacDonald, famous British Labor Leader, who passed away suddenly on shipboard. MacDonald was aged 71 at the time of his death.

Tired from his long strain of office, Mr. MacDonald resigned as Prime Minister of Great Britain in June 1935, and this year he had withdrawn from the cabinet.

Wm. McConnell of Gleichen Victim of Hunting Accident

Dies in Local Hospital following Mishap. Well known in District

William McConnell of Gleichen, aged 20, died in the Basinco Hospital on Tuesday morning, following a hunting accident near the Cherry Bridge lake on Monday afternoon. While hunting coyotes, Mr. McConnell was caught in the bush and discharged the bullet, piercing his body just below the heart.

Mr. McConnell was rushed to Basinco where he was given medical attention by Dr. A. G. Scott. Death came on Tuesday morning following several hours of unconsciousness.

The late Mr. McConnell is survived by his wife and 20 year old daughter, Jean. He was well known in this part, having been a resident of Gleichen for the past number of years. He was well known in the Gleichen and throughout the district, and gained a great number of friends who mourn his passing.

No inquiry into the cause of the death was held.

Thieves Busy in Town Over Week-end

Burglars made prey of three Basinco garages on Sunday night, with an attempt on a fourth, only to find a small sum of money for their efforts.

Removing a pane of glass from the rear window of the Basins Garage and Service Station, the thieves made their way to the office at the front of the building, where a removal of a second pane, "clash" they entered into the office. Forcing the cash drawer open, they took $15.00 and a small amount of change.

Persons' Service Station was also broken into, only a small amount of cash being taken from there. Entry was made by breaking a hole in the window and turning the window lock.

The third break-in was made at Roy Smith's Garage. Here also a window was opened and made entry. As was the case at Pearson's, only a small amount of cash was taken.

Ted Stiller, night-clerk at the Auto Camp Service Station was awakened in the morning when he thought someone was calling for gasoline. On switching on the lights of the Service room, he saw a man running away from the station towards the tracks.

Local R.C.M.P. were summoned and at present are working on the case.

A Duck is Surprised

For years game of the duck species have maintained a sublime contempt for the ability of one of our local hunters when equipped with shot and shell. For fifteen years at least off and on it has been the ambition of this gentleman to shoot a "duck" on the wing of course. At one time he was able to boast that he had shot some game, but they turned out to be tame ones and the property of "Duck Lake" Charlie Hall.

It is reliably reported under the provisions of "The Accurate News and Information Act," that the Game Commissioner, in view of the inability of the gentleman in question to kill any wild game, has waived the usual requirements calling for a license in this special case. All this will now require to be rescinded. For the gentleman shot a duck. It was travelling at a speed of 300 miles per hour. It was at least 15 yards. The shot was fired. It dropped dead.

The hunter nearly did likewise.

The Game Department in Edmonton, if the news ever reaches there, will have to call a special session of the Legislature to consider the question. The Ducks are all in a huddle every day. It appears they are afraid a precedent has been established and need special protection. By the way, Dr. Scott can verify the truth of the unpremeditated happening. It appears he was a witness.

Are you any one who cannot drive the hunters name. Dr. Scott might tell you, but if you see an unusual expansion of the chest of the local Dentist, you are too likely to draw any justifiable conclusion.

War Slaughter Beaten by Toll of Peace Years

Twenty-three years ago — on Aug. 4, 1914 — the nations of the world let slip the dogs of war.

In the ensuing four and a quarter years of conflict nearly ten million precious lives were lost.

When peace came in 1915 the world sighed with relief. "Never again!" was the fervent slogan on every lip. Yet the slaughter of the great war has been wholly eclipsed by the toll of the so-called "peace" that has followed, declares John Bull.

This article will open your eyes to the fact that we have enjoyed nineteen years of peace, and we still talk of the great war as the worst disaster that has befallen mankind in the last quarter of a century.

With sincere complacency we are content to blind ourselves to the trouble that has engulfed other nations in the last quarter of a century — as if they didn't count.

Yet, if we will only take facts frankly, we shall have to admit that there has been no real peace; that the nations of the world have gone on slaughtering on a scale that wholly eclipses that of the great war. It is not a pleasant reflection but it should have a chastening effect upon us.

The nations of the world have gone on slaughtering on a scale that wholly eclipses that of the great war. It is not a pleasant reflection but it should have a chastening effect upon us.

Basinco Defeats Rosemary 3-2 in Overtime Game

In a Sunday afternoon soccer football fixture at Rosemary, Basinco finally scored an extra goal in the overtime period to break a 2-2 tie, and emerge victorious over the boys from the Eastern town by a 3-2 score.

The game was a hard-fought encounter, Rosemary having a distinct edge of play during the first half, with loose play on the part of Basinco. Rosemary took a 2-0 lead early in the game and appeared to be content to defend this. However, in the second half Basinco scored a goal when Dave Morrison, dodged the Rosemary goal. In attempting to clear the ball from in front of his own goal, the ball hit a Rosemary player and rebounded through the opening for a point.

The second counter for Basinco came when Robert Jackson had the goal at his mercy, and finally managed him to tie up the score.

Calder, for Basinco, displayed clever foot and hand work in guiding the ball around. However he was thwarted very closely and it was not until the overtime period that he realized an opportunity to break loose and really show the boys how it was done. As a result of his attack the third and winning goal was scored.

Mr. W. McLaws of Basinco handled the whistle very capable, and was forced to use it frequently due to mis-play.

Hockey Club Organize For Coming Season

At a reorganization meeting of the Basinco Hockey Club held in the Young Men's Club rooms on Tuesday night, plans for the formation of a bigger and better team to represent Basinco this coming winter were freely discussed.

Following a short discussion, an election of officers was conducted, resulting as follows:

January Free — E. L. Riley President — Roy Smith Vice-President — Mr. A. S. Currie Treasurer — Jack Derry Manager — Bert Dwyer Coach — Ralph Marquardt

A letter was read from the Brooks club with regards to the forming of a league of teams from nearby towns. After a brief discussion, the matter was set aside to be brought up at the next meeting.

As the players on last year's team were not able to all wear the same colored sweaters, it was decided that a committee of three be appointed to enquire into the cost of new uniforms, and if some arrangements could be made whereby players would be decked out in new uniforms this winter. A. Yule, F. Cary and J. Derry were appointed to this committee.

WEDDINGS

SCHAFER—PIETZ

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Rev. G. J. Reiker of Medicine Hat on November 6th, at 11 a.m., when Eleanor, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Pietz of Schuler, Alta., became the bride of John Schaffer, third son of Mrs. L. Schaffer and the late Mr. Schaffer of Basinco.

The bride, who looked charming in a gown of pale blue broadcloth, entertained the room on the arm of her father, and carried a bouquet of yellow and white spray mums. She wore a wreath of yellow baby mums.

The bridesmaid, Miss Marie Kestler, of Medicine Hat, wore a pretty frock of pale green satin, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mr. Elias Loos, also of Medicine Hat, supported the groom.

Immediately after the ceremony, the happy couple left for Basinco, where a reception was held at the home of Mr. Schaffer. This was attended by about 60 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Schaffer will make their future home in Basinco.

CARLAD R.C. APPLES RECEIVED AT HUSSAR

Grateful residents of the district gathered in Hussar on Monday to receive their share of a carload of apples shipped from R.C. The fruit was in the shape following the journey.

Sunshine Society Seek Donations

The Basinco Local Sunshine Society which was formed in 1935, and includes representatives of the Town Council, Board of Trade and each of the Churches, has brought Christmas Cheer to many of the homes of our less fortunate neighbors, and has distributed clothing, shoes and food for many children who would otherwise have suffered severely in extreme weather.

This splendid work can only be carried on by the full co-operation of all the Citizens of Basinco, who are asked to phone the Secress — Mr. J. R. Donaldson, at the Town Hall, if they have any cash clothing, shoes, or food, to any other articles to contribute that they will be called on.

Gem Notes

Mr. Jim Maguire left Gem and is staying with his parents in Basinco.

A week with Mrs. Maguire was victorious in the Colony Sunday.

There was a surprise party at the home of James Ryan on Friday night. The neighbors and a number of fifty turned out to welcome the new-comer. Mr. Ryan is living on the Selkirk farm. A very jolly time was spent by all present.

The Ladies' Convention Club will meet on Wednesday at the home of Leroy Edwards. Plans are under way for the bazaar to be held in December.

Mr. Bill George and baby son, have returned from Basinco and are spending a week with Mrs. George's mother, Mrs. Ralph Robson.

Mr. Ray, principal of the Gem school and Miss Collins and Miss Pinn attended the teachers convention in Calgary on Thursday and Friday.

Miss Babe George spent the week-end at her home here.

Mr. Humble and Mr. F. D. Williamson spent a day in Calgary last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Scheibler were Calgary visitors on Friday.

Mr. Herman Giesbe and brother-in-law, Monday for Vancouver where they intend to spend a week.

We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Pridham on the birth of a daughter at their home in Gem. Both are doing well.

Mr. J. Brown had the misfortune to break his shoulder bone on Friday last. We hope it will soon be O.K. again.

Miss Edna Harwell teacher at Clancy, attended the teachers convention in Calgary last week.

School Board Hold Regular Meeting

The School Board held its regular monthly meeting at the Town Hall on Monday evening, with three Trustees in attendance.

Routine business took up part of the time, including the passing of accounts.

The Trustees are considering installing an electric fire alarm system, as it appears the pupils in one class room cannot hear the fire alarm, or confuse it with the regular bell.

"THE BROKEN SPELL"

November 11th! A fateful day. For more than four years the former peace-time structure of European society had been superseded and life had been raised to a strange intensity by the spell of war. Men and women had been exalted above death and pain and toil. Nothing had been too hard to bear or too precious to cast away and suddenly the spell was broken and "Peace" which millions had craved but could hardly comprehend had arrived. The Right Hon. Winston S. Churchill, C. H., M. P. himself one of the triumphant statesmen, one of the idols of the masses, writes about the sudden effect in language beautiful in the extreme, and which we commend our readers to read, and to read again:

"To the faithful, toll-burdened masses, the victory was so complete that no further effort seemed required. Germany had fallen and with her the world combination that had crushed her. Authority was dispersed; the world unshackled; the weak became the strong; the sheltered became the aggressive; the contrast between victors and vanquished tended constantly to diminish. A vast fatigue dominated collective action. Though every subordinate element endeavored to assert itself, revolutionary rage, like every other form of psychic energy burnt low. Through all the five acts the machine has run, its course; the light of history is switched off, the world stage dims, the actors shrivel, the chorus sinks. The war of the giants has ended; the quarrels of the pygmies have begun."

If the war of the giants ended on 11th November, 1918 the quarrels of the pygmies have not given us "Peace on Earth and Good Will Towards Men" as an article published elsewhere in this issue will clearly show. Rather does it indicate that there may be another war of the giants. And what a titanic struggle it may be!

TRIAL BY MAGISTRATES

From the Annual Report of the Criminal Statistics Branch of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics we gather that during the year ending 30 September, 1935, there were tried in Canada, 39,506 cases in the various courts, including the trial by Magistrate of these 34,971, or a percentage of 88.5, were tried by Magistrates. The percentage of indictable cases tried by Magistrates has tended to increase steadily since 1927, and with the enlarged jurisdiction conferred on Magistrates the chances are that the percentage will remain relatively high.

Indictable offenses, plainly stated, are offenses which are considered more or less serious in the eyes of the law, consequently hearing before a Justice, but do not include the lesser offenses which may be tried by a Justice of the Peace in a summary manner. In Alberta, Magistrates have jurisdiction, either with or without the consent of the accused, to practically every form of indictable offense except a few in the category of murder, manslaughter, treason, etc. It will be seen at once that the power of our Magistrates over the Liberty of the subject is great, and it ought to be a matter of the concern of the Department of the Attorney General to see that Alberta Magistrates are of a type fully qualified and capable by training and experience to discharge properly the onerous duties devolving upon them.

In Ontario to the everlasting credit of Hon. Mitchell Hepburn practically every lay Magistrate's appointment was cancelled, and travelling Magistrates with training and experience in the administration of criminal law, drawn from the ranks of the legal fraternity, were appointed in their places. With the present Administration's antipathy towards law, particularly of the constitutional variety, and towards lawyers in general, it is almost too much to expect that much progress will be made along similar lines in Alberta for some time to come. We commend the matter to the attention of our present Attorney General, provided he can spare the time from his everlasting electioneering campaign which has now been running for more than two years.

RUGBY FOOTBALL

The game of Rugby Football in Western Canada has become quite fashionable in recent years, and the reason is not far to seek. Quite apart from the merits or demerits of the system or practice of importing "stars" from the United States, and regardless of the support superiority of these imports over the home-brew exponent of the pastime, the fact remains that the game is being played in Alberta these days on a scale quite unknown before.

Perhaps it is the publicity which the newspapers are giving which is causing the new enthusiasm for the game in rural parts as well as in the cities where the fall pastime has been indulged in for thirty years or more. At any rate this fall has seen the organization of teams in rural parts which never before had even given a thought to trying to round up a team willing to try.

The success of the Calgary Bronks in the Western Conference this year, following their excellent showing last year, when the team was mostly made of home brews, has stirred the imagination of a lot of youths in the rural towns, so that today there are many teams out chasing the pigskin, and taking all bumps and knocks attendant on the pursuit of the game. To the uninitiated the game at first is quite a puzzle, and perhaps somewhat uninteresting, but to the young man with an adequate quantity of what it takes, it provides a thrill and experience which is perhaps not equalled in any other game, including hockey. There may be a call of the primitive in it, but one thing is sure, that after a player has had a few years experience at the game he will be more or less able to look after himself physically both on or off the field, and still retain a considerable amount of respect for the other fellow's prowess. The bully soon meets his match and the coward soon finds his level, when two fair teams meet to test each other's prowess.

POLICING THE NORTH-WEST TERRITORIES

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police is the only Police force operating in the North West Territories, and is responsible not only for the enforcement of all the laws, but also for fulfillment of multitudinous duties on behalf of various departments of the Canadian government. Twenty three permanent detachments and two summer detachments with a total personnel of 55 men exercise jurisdiction over an area of 1,309,628 square miles, their duties being carried out by air, land and sea, in teams with the latter as the means of transportation most frequently used.

The above information is gleaned from the R.C.M.P. quarterly for the month of Oct. 1937, a publication issued by the Police Force itself. We notice from the daily papers that there is some thought being given to the idea of having the publication made available to the public generally. If the October sample be any criterion, we imagine that the publication will receive a very cordial reception and prove to be a very welcome relief from the usual run of magazines one casually picks up now and again.

From Our Exchange Columns

ALBERTA'S MAJESTY

(From "Editor and Publisher", New York).

What a great many politicians of the U. S. A. must often be asked to do was attempted this week by the Social Credit government of Alberta—absolute subjection of the press to the state. The bill, described in other columns, is repugnant to every tradition of Anglo-Saxon politics; it effectively destroys the functions for which freedom of the press exists in British and American fundamental law. Happily, the tyrannous measure failed to get the approval of the crown's lieutenant, and it faces a similar fate, we believe at the hands of the Dominion Governor-General and Council.

Alberta has at least two and probably more newspapers which compare favorably with any printed in the Dominion of Canada or the United States. It has many weeklies which admirably serve those communities. But it also has a one-crop agriculture which is practically the sole revenue source for its nearly 800,000 people. When wheat went bad, Alberta's people, like millions in the U.S.A. blamed the idiosyncrasies of weather and climate and their own shortcomings upon the deficiencies of their elected government. Without knowing any of the specific defects of those officials (and they probably differed only in detail from the defects noted in Nebraska, North Dakota and New York), we will bet a year's pay that the political shortcomings had little to do with the plight facing Albertan farmers a few years ago. But on the result of the economic and political discontent, there rode into power the advocates of an economic theory that discounts human nature and runs against the current of all human experience.

Long ago, it was plain that the Social Credit government had defaulted on all its pre-election promises; it was evident from the start to common sense people that the promises could not be kept. Basic economic conditions, which should have leveled themselves upward with the rest of the western world bogged down under rig-marole and incompetency of the Social Credit regime and the province lacks either present or future prospects of prosperity. But still has a social credit government, which the Democrats, Republicans, Tories, or Liberals, Socialists or Fascists, wants to stay in power.

It cannot stay in power if the courageous press of Alberta performs its duty, and the present bill was an undenied attempt by the ruling powers to hamstring the press in performance of that duty. The move is characteristic of government desperation and we rejoice there is provision for the Canadian constitution for nullifying of the vicious bill. It must not be allowed to stand upon the North American continent.

WORK AND WAGES

(From Peace River Record)

Alberta audiences have come to expect irresponsible statements from certain types of speakers, and they are gradually growing more or less accustomed to hearing supporters of our provincial government hurl defiance at the constituted authority of our system of government. But no audience was ever prepared to expect the degree of seditious teaching that marked the address of R. Earl Ansley, M.L.A. for Leduc, before a Peace River audience Friday night last.

Posing as a Social Creditor, Mr. Ansley's remarks were such as to leave little room for his line of reasoning and anarchy itself. His declaration that neither the king nor his king's representative has the right of disallowance, and his further emphatic prophecy that if re-elected the Social Credit government would discharge the lieutenant governor and appoint one of their own, were typical examples of the extremes suggested by Mr. Ansley.

Another of Mr. Ansley's extremes was evident when he endeavored to explain that through social credit nobody would need to work, but that by gaining control of the banks and the issue of currency "we will all be able to live off the fat of the land."

Mr. Ansley condemned the program of public works and highway building as having been prompted by the financial interests of the doctored.

"Some of you voted for work and wages because you thought that was the solution to the problem, but it was not. We don't want work and wages. What we want is purchasing power. If we had purchasing power we wouldn't need anything else. By doing a little bookkeeping properly we could live off the fat of the land. I don't want to work, and I'm sure you people don't."

Perhaps it is as well for Alberta that men like Ansley are appearing on the public platform. People must hear them to realize how childlike and how irresponsible these men who form our government can really be. The pity is that more people did not turn out to get an earful of Mr. Ansley's talk. If everybody in Alberta could have the opportunity to hear such legislators as him talk, a change in government would come quickly.

"R. B." IS HIMSELF AGAIN

"R. B. is himself again.

Life was getting pretty dreary for the past couple of years when our Mr. Bennett was cooing round as gently as any sucking dove. He has no idea of how any unmuzzled sound and the fury with which he was wont to keep us all a twitter. Fears were expressed that Mr. Bennett was losing his grip, getting old and soft.

But he is back in the list again with one of his oldtime onslaughts and it was a real pleasure to read his vigorous attack on the Rowell Commission. Not that we agree with him but it was good to see that Mr. Bennett had not lost any of the fire, but had just concealed it for a time.

Newspapers commented frequently during the past year or so on the new and improved Mr. Bennett. They were all wrong. The Observer confesses that we love the snappy Mr. Bennett, who in moments of stress can find a rebel behind every bushel on the prairies; who can fairly make the aurora borealis quiver with his denunciations of everybody who does not agree with him.

The Observer is all for the old-time R.B. and wishes more power to his tonsils. Mr. Bennett may be wrong and is most of the time; but, by gracious, one knows where he stands, right or wrong—Vegreville Observer.

TENS of thousands of Canadian farms and homes benefit from first mortgage loans made possible by the accumulated savings of Life Insurance policyholders.

For every borrower, there are six thirty people who supply the necessary funds.

This fact affords a striking illustration of the "double duty" performed by Life Insurance dollars. Not only do they ensure financial security for the men, women and children of Canada, but they also help to build and finance their farms and homes.

Life Insurance companies exercise the greatest care in the selection of properties upon which mortgage loans are made. To safeguard the savings of policyholders, security of principal and interest is and must always be the first consideration.

Arrowwood Notes

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Everett Macdonald, on Tuesday, Nov. 2nd.
 Mr. and Mrs. Richards and family were visitors to Calgary on Friday.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. Lawenden and family were visitors to Castle on Friday returning on Monday, at the home of their daughter, Mrs. W. Ward.
 Another of our local residents, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Archambault, our barber, are moving away. They had an auction sale on Wednesday, and plan to take a trip west to visit their children during the winter and return in the spring to reside in Calgary. The community is sorry to see them go, as they are one of the longest residents in the village, and were always ready to help with anything for the welfare of the town. We all wish them good luck on their journey and hope to see them back here again in the spring.

The Arrowwood Girl Guides are very well pleased with the sale of their poppies, having sold about one hundred.

Mr. and Mrs. Callahan and family of High River were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sheoran on on Sunday.

Mrs. Rainville entertained a few ladies to tea on Sunday in honor of Mrs. Archambault, who is leaving the city.
 The Arrowwood H. S. rugby team won a decisive victory over the Queensdown school on the local grid: 100 to a score of 3-3. The visitors showed a strong determination to stop the locals attack, but seemed unable to cope with the situation. The Arrowwood line held in impenetrable cauldrons to throw the visitors for a loss while the plunging of Leonard and Jack Williams and the pain receiving of Pete Brown were outstanding features of the game.

Mr. Norman Jacques who is attending school in Calgary, spent the week end visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.B. Jacques.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Macdonald of Turner Valley spent Sunday renewing acquaintances in town.
 Sunday school 11:45 a.m. in the United Church. Followed by regular morning service subject "The way to end war." The subject will suggest some things that the average individual may do in the face of an impending crisis.

HEADACHES

Pain means that some injury is being done to the body. The body may suffer from certain forms of injury without experiencing pain. The severity of the pain may have no relationship to the severity of the injury. For all practical purposes, we may take it as a safe guide that pain is a reliable sign of danger in that it indicates harm or injury to the body.
 One form of pain with which most people are familiar is headache. Headaches, like other pains, mean that something is wrong inside the body. There are many varieties of headaches described as sharp or dull, frontal or occipital (front or back of the head) morning and evening.
 Headache is the most common symptom which we experience. There is practically no illness which may not give rise to headache. It is often the first evidence of the onset of disease. Even more often it is the result of indiscretions in eating or drinking, lack of exercise, constipation, or neglect of some other health need of the body.
 If a headache is severe and annoying, it is quite natural that relief should be sought. In many ways the public are informed as to how relief from pain may be secured by the use of this or that drug. Drugs, however, are of value only when properly used, that is, when prescribed by someone who knows the condition of the patient and the action of the drugs.
 The victim of headache who knows that his headache has resulted from obvious causes from previous experience has no reason to seek medical aid. If it is exercise or fresh air he needs, then he knows where to get these; he can look after his diet and stimulation if they are at fault.
 There is another group of persons who, in spite of taking reasonable care of their bodies, suffer from persistent, severe or repeated headaches such a person is very foolish to rely upon self-medication. These forms of headaches are no often a symptom of abnormal state inside the body that he should seek the cause rather than merely treat the headache.

One of the most common causes of headache is eye-strain, which can be relieved by properly-fitted glasses and in no other way. It is obvious that if a particular headache is a symptom of anaemia or nephritis, or

Min-o-vite

Iodized Minerals with Cod Liver Oil Builds Vitality, Prevents Disease. Look for the Trade Mark—MIN-O-VITE—across No. substitute. The Perfected Mineral Supplement Contains all requisite minerals—a special mixture being sold to meet the needs of each type of animal and each bag of MIN-O-VITE is guaranteed to contain the following elements: Calcium, Phosphorus, Nitrate of Potash (not in Hog Min-o-vite Iron), Copper, Sodium Chloride, Charcoal in Hog and Poultry Min-o-vite, Sulphur Potassium Iodide 5%, Vitamin A and D.

Metabolism of Minerals:
The chief claim we make for "MIN-O-VITE" is that it provides in one complete mixture all essential minerals including Iodine and Vitamin D, thus insuring maximum metabolism of Calcium. Unless minerals can be metabolized, little good results from their use, and Iodine is used to insure this, but when Vitamin D is also incorporated it is a proved fact that metabolism is increased enormously. Digestibility counts for little in a mineral mixture, it is the amount actually metabolized that indicates value for money.

There are many imitations of "MIN-O-VITE" and we appreciate the compliment. Get genuine patented "MIN-O-VITE" and be sure of giving your valuable stock the proved product. Sold the world over.
